MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH C. McFARLANE OF OGDEN, MARRIED THURSDAY

It would be hard to imagine a prettier, more delightful reception than the one given Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Richards in honor of the wedding of their nieces, Pearl, to Joseph C. McFarlane. The ceremony was solemnized the next day in the temple at Salt Lake and a large number of the intimate friends and relatives of the young couple were present from both Salt Lake and Ogden. The Richards home at 536 Twenty-fourth street was decorated in exquisite taste by the members of the B and B club, of which Miss Richards was a leading member. At the door the guests were met by Miss Peery and Mr. Robert I. Burton, who ushered them into the living room, which was transformed for the occasion into a green grove with palms, ferns and ex-lax. At the south end Miss Josephine West, in a dainty costume of green and white, presided over a punch bowl and served delicious lemonade. The guests were ushered into the dressing rooms by Mrs. John L. Herrick and Miss Katherine Carnahan. Near the dressing rooms one large apartment was given over to a store room for the presents, with which the bride was abundantly dowered. The parlor was decorated in white, the bride and groom being stationed under a canopy of bride roses and standing on a carpet of red roses. The dining room was decorated with flowers. Mrs. McFarlane was becomingly gowned in a costume of crepe silk voile with trimmings of real lace and was attended by Miss Lettie Richards, her cousin, who wore a dainty costume of blue. The groom was attended by Will Williams. The guests were ushered into the parlor and introduced to the bride couple by Mrs. John L. Herrick and Miss Katherine Carnahan. In the back parlor, stationed behind a screen of palms, was Purdy's orchestra, which discoursed music during the evening. Besides the palms in decorations the back parlor decorations were masses of red roses. The dining room was ornamented with cream ribbon streamers and pink roses. John L. Herrick and C. C. Richards, Jr., ushered the guests into the dining room, where light refreshments were served by Fryer. Mr. and Mrs. McFarlane will be at home to their friends after July 1 at 537 Twenty-sixth street.

OGDEN.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Roberts have had as their guest for the past ten days Mr. Ralph Roberts, a brother from Oklahoma City. Wednesday they gave a tally-ho party in his honor to Ogden canyon. The guests were Mrs. A. B. Corey, Misses Hume, Bennett, Julia Wright, Cawilliams, Inez Adams, Redolph, Manly, Barrows, Alden, Kessler, Edith Corey, Verna Bowman, Messrs. George Moore, Salt Lake, Gay, Spargo, Archie Cross, Lawrence Corey and Roberts.

A brilliant affair was the reception given Friday evening at the Sacred Heart academy in honor of the silver jubilee of that institution. The parlors were prettily decorated and the members of the alumnae and music was furnished from an orchestra stationed in the hallway. Light refreshments were served and about 300 guests attended during the progress of the affair, which was from 8 until 11. The gathering was conspicuous by a number of prominent members of the Catholic clergy, who were in attendance from different parishes through the inter-mountain country.

Miss Romney, with her mother and brother, are in Ogden the guests of her sister, Mrs. E. S. Carroll.

A delightful affair given in connection with commencement week of the Sacred Heart academy was the banquet of the Alumnae association given Thursday night in the hall at the academy.

Mrs. Charles Tyree and Charles Jackson entertained the Rathbone sisters Thursday afternoon. There were guessing games with flowers and berries as the uncertain quantities and the chief prize winners were Mesdames Brooks, Custard and Whitaker; the other prize winners were Mesdames Gullbur, Marks and Lindsey. The other guests were: Mesdames A. W. Brown, G. F. Brown, Lucy Hart, Kate Hart, Robertson, McJaw, Ecklund, Hestmark, Jenkins, Carr, Fulton, Wyant and Robbins.

A delightful programme of toasts was arranged and carried out. Besides the members of the alumnae the guests were the visiting clergy in Ogden for the silver jubilee.

The wedding of Miss Gertrude L. Keller and Mr. W. L. Keller was quietly solemnized Sunday morning by Rev. Alfred Brown.

Professor Charles Bowman of Butte is a guest in Ogden at the home of Theodora Schonsbach.
